General rules

First Round

Article 1 : The members of the jury vote by secret ballot and, by a majority, designate the candidates able to stand for the final round. In case of a tie, the President of the Jury has a casting vote.

Art.2 At the end of the deliberation, the selected candidates will be called for the final round and the order of passage will be established by lot by the finalists themselves.

Final Round

Art.3 The jury listens to ALL the finalists.

Art.4 There is no vote between each discipline

Art.5 Each member of the jury votes successfully by secret ballot for the attribution of each of the 2 FMAJI prize, the Jean Paul NEU prize, and the designation of a substitute.

Art.6 Each prize is awarded to the candidate who obtains the majority in the following order:

1. Special PRIZE of the DEPARTMENTAL COUNCIL of VAL-D'OISE (SALVI) (to the candidate obtaining the greatest number of votes, all categories combined) 3050 euros
2. FMAJI Daniel FAIDHERBE Award (violin) 3000 euros
3. FMAJI Daniel FAIDHERBE Award (piano) 3000 euros
4. Jean-Paul NEU prize for the best interpretation of the contemporary work imposed among all the candidates 1000 euros
5. Substitute

Art.7 For each prize awarded and in case of a tie, a second ballot will be held at the request of the President who has the casting vote.

Art.8 The alternate laureate may perform as a soloist at concerts, upon the request of the Artistic Director and/or replace at concerts one of the two prizes due to a case of force majeure (illness, bodily injury or death)

Art.9 The laureate who obtains the greatest number of votes, all categories combined, is automatically awarded the Special Prize of the County Council of Val d'Oise « Pierre Salvi Prize ».

Art.10 The counting of all the ballot papers of the competition jury will be made by the President in the presence of the mayor of the city where the competition is held and who will sign the report of the results.

Art.11 The announcement of the results is public and will be made by the President.

Art.12 The artistic Director of the FMAJI convenes the winners at the end of the competition to prepare the concert season.

Art.13 The candidates takes, from their admission to complete, the commitment to respect the contracts proposed to the laureates who are determining for the attribution of the Prizes, namely, among other things, to happen during all the concerts of the season and respect the conditions of the Conducteurs regarding the rehearsal services, the school activities planned by the artistic director and any other event highlighting them.

The prizes awarded to the laureates consist of a scholarship, the amount being determined each year by the Board and participation on concerts with orchestra.

The transport and accomodation of the candidates admitted to compete is not supported by the FMAJI.

In accordance with the legal provisions in force, the transportation costs of the winners during the concert season are covered exclusively under the conditions set by the administration of the FMAJI, particularly with regard to the transportation and accomodation. A maximum of 1500 euros will be devoted to that matter.

Art.14 The result is without appeal. Any dispute of any nature whatsoever and for whatever reason will be submitted to the competent courts.
